OF THE

Houſe of Commons.

Martis, 11 Die Octobris, 1763.

THE Houſe being met, according to the laſt Prorogation, a Meſſage was brought from His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, by Archibald Edmonſtone, Eſq; Gentleman Uſher of the Black Rod.

Mr. Speaker,

It is His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that this Houſe attend Him immediately in the Houſe of Peers.

Accordingly Mr. Speaker, with the Houſe, went up to attend His Excellency, and being returned,

Mr.

Mr. Speaker reported that the Houſe had this Day attended His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant in the Houſe of Peers, where His Excellency was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, of which, Mr. Speaker ſayd (to prevent Miſtake) he had obtained a Copy, which he read to the Houſe, and the ſame was afterwards read by the Clerk at the Table, and is as follows,

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is with the utmoſt Satisfaction that, in Obedience to His Majeſty's Commands, I am now to meet a Parliament which has already given ſo many and ſuch very diſtinguiſhed Proofs of it's Zeal and Unanimity in the Support and Service of the Crown.

I have it expreſly in Command from His Majeſty to declare to you His entire Approbation of your paſt Conduct, and to aſſure you that the whole Courſe of your late Proceedings has filled His Royal Mind with every Sentiment of Regard which can flow from a juſt and gracious Sovereign towards a dutiful and a loyal People.

It is with particular Satisfaction I communicate to you, at the Opening of this Seſſion of Parliament, thoſe great and important Events which have occurred ſince your laſt Meeting.

By the Concluſion of a general Peace, the Tranquillity of every Part of Europe is perfectly re-eſtabliſhed; His Majeſty's Dominions are enlarged; the Commerce of His Subjects is extended; and you are, at length, relieved from thoſe Burthens which are unavoidable in the Progreſs even of the moſt ſucceſsful War.

Intereſted

Intereſted, as you are, in the Happineſs of ſo excellent a Sovereign; and ſenſible, as you have ever been, of the ineſtimable Public Bleſſings which you have enjoyed, under His illuſtrious Houſe; you will receive, with Pleaſure, the Information of the auſpicious Birth of the Prince of Wales, and of the further Encreaſe of the Royal Family, by the Birth of a ſecond Prince: Events, which promiſe ſuch an Addition to His Majeſty's domeſtic Felicity, and ſuch a laſting Security to our happy Conſtitution.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I have ordered the proper Officers to prepare the ſeveral Accounts and Eſtimates, that they may be laid, in due Time before you: You will obſerve, that altho', from the Exigencies of ſeveral extraordinary Services, the Expences of the Two preceding Years have conſiderably exceeded what was uſual in Times of Peace; yet they are fallen far ſhort of the Sums which were ſo liberally voted in the laſt Seſſion, a great Part of which ſtill remains unborrowed: His Majeſty having determined to make Uſe of the Credit given to his Government in no other Proportion than as the Neceſſity of His Service exactly required. I conſider it as extremely Fortunate, that I enter upon the Government of this Kingdom, at a Time, when the Situation of public Affairs will permit ſo very conſiderable a Diminution of the public Expence, and when I am commanded by His Majeſty to thank you only for your paſt Efforts, without again having Recourſe to the experienced Liberality of Parliament: I have nothing to aſk but the Continuance of the Supplies for the Support of the ordinary Eſtabliſhments, which it is hoped will not exceed the Produce of the ordinary Revenue, and I recommend to you a proper Attention to the Reduction of the public Debt.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Not only my Duty, but my earneſt good Wiſhes for the Proſperity of Ireland, oblige me to take this Opportunity of mentioning

mentioning to you the only unpleaſing Circumſtance which has occurred ſince my Entrance upon this Government; the tumultuous Riſings of the lower People, in Contempt of Laws and of Magiſtracy, and of every conſtitutional Subordination, muſt, if not duely attended to, be productive of the moſt fatal Conſequences, they are a Diſgrace to a Country of Liberty; they are ruinous to a Country of Commerce; and muſt be particularly fatal here, where the leaſt Check to the riſing Spirit of Induſtry is ſo very ſenſibly felt, and ſo very difficult to be retrieved; no Means can ſerve more effectually to prevent theſe Diſorders for the future, than the Encouragement of ſuch Inſtitutions as tend to impreſs on the Minds of the lower order of People, early Habits of Induſtry, and true Principles of Religion: For this Purpoſe, your Proteſtant Charter Schools were eſtabliſhed, to which I therefore recommend the Continuance of your Care, Encouragement, and Support: Your Linen Manufacture demands and will reward every Inſtance of Public Attention; there is nothing which can more properly excite your future Endeavours, and nothing has more fully anſwered your former Expectations: This Manufacture has been, at all Times, the favourite Object of Parliamentary Encouragement; and I ſhould be concerned that any National Advantage which has been cultivated under the Adminiſtration of my Predeceſſors ſhould be neglected under Mine: Be aſſured you cannot take any Meaſures which will be more grateful to His Majeſty; or, which I ſhall be more ſolicitous to forward than thoſe which may, in any reſpect, advance the growing Proſperity of this very improveable Country: If, therefore, any of your Manufactures may be further extended; if any Thing can be done towards exciting the Spirit; or, providing the Means of Induſtry; If any Improvements in Agriculture can be introduced, upon wiſe and practicable Principles; and in every Thing that tends to the Encouragement of Virtue or the promoting of true Religion, you will have, towards the Attainment of thoſe Ends, not only My zealous Co-operation, but His Majeſty's ſteady and willing Protection. I come to this Government with the King's expreſs Commands, and My own very warm Inclination to recommend and to ſupport ſuch Meaſures: His Majeſty has the firmeſt Reliance on your experienced Duty and Loyalty; on your unbiaſs'd Regard to the Public; and He doubts not that this Seſſion of Parliament will be carried on, in a Manner ſuitable to your own Dignity and to the Unanimity of your paſt Proceedings.

Manner

If the moſt inviolable Attachment to His Majeſty, and Zeal for His Service; if a firm Adherence to thoſe Principles by which the Proteſtants of Ireland have ever been diſtinguiſhed, were Qualifications ſufficient for the Diſcharge of the high and arduous Truſt committed to My Hands, I might inſure to Myſelf, an Adminiſtration not unacceptable to Parliament: And I ſtill flatter Myſelf, that, as the only Ends I have in Purſuit are the King's Service, and the Public Welfare, I may obtain the only Rewards I have in View, His Majeſty's favourable Acceptance of My Services, and your entire Approbation of My Conduct.

Ordered,

That His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech be entered in the Journals of this Houſe.

Reſolved, Nemine Contradicente,

That an humble Addreſs be preſented to His Majeſty, to aſſure His Majeſty that we ſhall be always ready to give him the moſt convincing Proofs of our Loyalty and Zeal for the Support of His Crown and Dignity. To expreſs our warmeſt Gratitude for the gracious Approbation with which His Majeſty is pleaſed to honour our paſt Conduct; and to aſſure His Majeſty that we ſhall in the Courſe of our future Proceedings, by our Perſeverance in the ſame Principles of Duty and Loyalty, endeavour to deſerve the Continuance of His Majeſty's Royal Favour and Protection. To return our moſt dutiful and moſt grateful Thanks to His Majeſty, for His paternal Care, in being graciouſly pleaſed, upon the Re-eſtabliſhment of a general Peace, immediately to relieve His loyal and faithful Subjects of this Kingdom from thoſe heavy Burdens, which they chearfully bore, during the late ſucceſsful War. To expreſs the Happineſs we muſt feel from every new Acceſſion to His Majeſty's Dominions, and Extenſion of the Commerce of

His

His Subjects. To expreſs our moſt unfeigned Joy, upon the auſpicious Birth of a Prince of Wales, and of the further Addition to His Majeſty's Royal Houſe by the Birth of a ſecond Prince ; Events, which as they promiſe ſo great an Addition to His Majeſty's Domeſtic Felicity, and ſuch a laſting Security to our happy Conſtitution, muſt give the higheſt Pleaſure to a People deeply intereſted in the Happineſs of ſo excellent a Sovereign, and ſo fully ſenſible of the ineſtimable public Bleſſings which they have, without Interruption, enjoyed under His Majeſty's illuſtrious Houſe. To Acknowledge it as a particular Inſtance of His Majeſty's tender Concern for the Welfare of this Kingdom, that he has been graciouſly pleaſed to appoint a chief Governor to preſide over us, of whoſe approved Fidelity to His Majeſty, and ſteady Attachment to His Royal Houſe, we are fully perſuaded, and of whoſe Honour, Juſtice, Integrity, and other eminent Qualities, we have conceived the ſtrongeſt Opinion. To expreſs our juſt Senſe of His Majeſty's great Goodneſs, in having made uſe of the Credit given to His Government, in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, in no other Proportion than as the Neceſſity of His Service exactly required ; and to aſſure His Majeſty, that we ſhall with the greateſt Chearfulneſs, continue the neceſſary Supplies, for the Support of the ordinary Eſtabliſhment, with a proper Attention to the Reduction of the Public Debt. To aſſure His Majeſty, that we have ſeen, with the greateſt Concern, the tumultuous Riſings of the lower People, in Contempt of Laws, of Magiſtracy, and of every Conſtitutional Subordination, which, if not duly attended to, muſt be productive of the moſt fatal Conſequences, and which, we are fully ſenſible, are diſgraceful to a Country of Liberty, and ruinous to a Country of Commerce. That we are convinced that no means can ſerve more effectually to prevent the like Diſorders for the future, than the Encouragement of ſuch Inſtitutions, as tend to impreſs on the Minds of the lower Order of People, early Habits of Induſtry, and true Principles of Religion ; and for this deſirable Purpoſe, we ſhall continue our Care, Encouragement, and Support of the Proteſtant Charter Schools; and ſhall have the ſtricteſt Attention to every Method, by which our Linen Manufacture may be improved and extended. To aſſure His Majeſty, that we ſhall be actuated by the ſame Principles of Duty and Loyalty, by the ſame unbiaſſed Regard to the Public, which recommended our Conduct in the laſt Seſſion of Parli-

Parliament, to the Approbation of the beſt of Princes; and to declare, that we conſider the Continuance of His Majeſty's Royal Protection, as the ſure and ſolid Foundation of our Welfare and Proſperity.

Ordered,

MR. William Burton reported from the Committee, appointed to draw up an Addreſs to His Majeſty, that they had drawn up an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was read, and is as follows:

TO THE

KING's Moſt Excellent MAJESTY.

The Humble ADDRESS of the KNIGHTS, CITIZENS, and BURGESSES, in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland, in Parliament aſſembled, firmly attached to Your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon, Royal Family and Government, humbly beg Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, that we ſhall be always ready to give Your Majeſty every convincing Proof of our Loyalty and Zeal for the Support of Your Majeſty's Crown and Dignity.

The Approbation with which Your Majeſty has been graciouſly pleaſed to honour our paſt Conduct, fills our Hearts with the warmeſt Sentiments of Gratitude, and lays us under the ſtrongeſt Obligation, to endeavour by a conſtant Perſeverance in the ſame Principles of Duty and Loyalty, to deſerve the Continuance of Your Royal Favour and Protection.

We think it our indiſpenſable Duty, to return Your Majeſty our moſt grateful and ſincere Acknowledgments for Your paternal Care, in being graciouſly pleaſed, upon the Re-eſtabliſhment of a general Peace, immediately to relieve Your loyal and faithful Subjects of this Kingdom, from thoſe heavy Burdens, which they chearfully bore during the Continuance of the late late ſucceſsful War; And we humbly beg Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, that we feel the greateſt Happineſs, from every new Acceſſion to Your Majeſty's Dominions, and Extenſion of the Commerce of Your Subjects.

Permit us to Congratulate Your Majeſty, upon the auſpicious Birth of a Prince of Wales, and the further Addition to Your Majeſty's Royal Houſe by the Birth of a ſecond Prince; Events, which as they promiſe ſo great an Addition to Your Majeſty's Domeſtic Felicity, and ſuch a laſting Security to our happy Conſtitution, muſt give the higheſt Pleaſure to a People deeply intereſted in the Happineſs of ſo excellent a Sovereign, and ſo fully ſenſible of the ineſtimable public Bleſſings, which they have, without Interruption, enjoyed, under Your illuſtrious Houſe.

We acknowledge it as a particular Inſtance of Your Majeſty's tender Concern for the Welfare of this Kingdom, that You have been graciouſly pleaſed to appoint a chief Governor to preſide over us, of whoſe approved Fidelity to Your Majeſty, and ſteady Attachment to Your Royal Houſe, we are fully perſuaded; and of whoſe Honour, Integrity, Juſtice, and other eminent Qualities, we have conceived the higheſt Opinion.

We are moſt gratefully affected with Your Majeſty's Goodneſs, in having made Uſe of the Credit given to Your Government, in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, in no other Proportion than as the Neceſſity of Your Service exactly required: And we ſhall with the greateſt Chearfulneſs, continue the neceſſary Supplies, for the Support of Your Majeſty's ordinary Eſtabliſhment, with a proper Attention to the Reduction of the Public Debt.

We have ſeen, with the deepeſt Concern, the tumultuous Riſings of the lower People, in Contempt of Law, of Magiſtracy, and every Conſtitutional Subordination, which, if not duly attended to, muſt be productive of the moſt fatal Conſequences quences, and which, we are fully ſenſible, are Diſgraceful to a Country of Liberty, and ruinous to a Country of Commerce.

We are convinced that no means can more effectually prevent the like Diſorders for the future, than the Encouragement of ſuch Inſtitutions, as tend to impreſs on the Minds of the lower Order of People, early Habits of Induſtry, and true Principles of Religion; and for this deſirable Purpoſe, we ſhall continue our Care, Encouragement, and Support of the Proteſtant Charter Schools; and ſhall have the ſtricteſt Attention to every Method, by which our Linen Manufacture may be improved and extended.

We beg Leave humbly to aſſure Your Majeſty, that we ſhall be actuated in our future Proceedings, by the ſame Principles of Duty and Loyalty, by the ſame unbiaſſed Regard to the Public, that recommended our Conduct in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, to the Approbation of the beſt of Princes; and that we ſhall always conſider the Continuance of Your Majeſty's Royal Protection, as the ſure and ſolid Foundation of our Welfare and Proſperity.

The five firſt Paragraphs of the Addreſs, being read a ſecond Time, were agreed to by the Houſe.

The ſixth Paragraph, being read a ſecond Time, a Motion was made, that the ſame be amended, by expunging the Words, ordinary Eſtabliſhment, and in the Place of them inſerting the Word, Government; and the ſame was amended accordingly; and the ſaid Paragraph, ſo amended, is as follows:

We are moſt gratefully affected with Your Majeſty's Goodneſs, in having made uſe of the Credit given to Your Government, in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, in no other Proportion, than as the Neceſſity of Your Service exactly required: And we ſhall, with the greateſt Chearfulneſs, continue the neceſſary Supplies, for the Support of Your Majeſty's Government, with with a proper Attention to the Reduction of the Public Debt.

Then the ſaid Paragraph, ſo amended, was, upon the Queſtion put thereupon, agreed to by the Houſe.

The ſubſequent Paragraphs being read a ſecond Time, were agreed to by the Houſe.

The Title of the ſaid Addreſs being read a ſecond Time, was agreed to by the Houſe.

Reſolved, Nemine Contradicente,

That the ſaid Addreſs ſo amended, do ſtand the Addreſs of this Houſe to His Majeſty.

Reſolved,

That Mr. Speaker, with the Houſe, do attend His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant with the ſaid Addreſs, and deſire the ſame may be laid before His Majeſty, as the Addreſs of this Houſe.

Ordered,

That ſuch Members of this Houſe as are of His Majeſty's moſt honourable Privy Council, do deſire to know His Excellency's Pleaſure, when he will be attended with the ſaid Addreſs.

The Right Honourable Thomas Conolly reported from the Committee, appointed to draw up an Addreſs of Thanks to His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, for His Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, that they had drawn up an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was read, and afterwards read Paragraph by Paragraph, and agreed to by the Houſe, and is as follows:

WE His Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland, in Parliament aſſembled, return Your Excellency our moſt ſincere Thanks for Your moſt Excellent Speech from the Throne; and we beg Leave to congratulate Your Excellency on Your Appointment to the Government of this Kingdom.

We are inexpreſſibly happy that our paſt Conduct has met with His Majeſty's Approbation; and we flatter ourſelves that by our future Proceedings, we ſhall not forfeit that Regard, which His Majeſty has ſo graciouſly condeſcended to honour us with.

We beg Leave to expreſs our Satisfaction, that the Situation of Public Affairs will permit ſo very conſiderable a Diminution of the Public Expences; and that Your Excellency is appointed to the Government of this Kingdom at ſo happy a Period. And we aſſure Your Excellency we ſhall moſt chearfully grant ſuch Supplies as ſhall be neceſſary for the Support of His Majeſty's Government, and ſhall give all proper Attention to the Reduction of the National Debt.

The

The Riſings of the lower People, mentioned by Your Excellency, gives us the utmoſt Concern ; they deſerve, and ſhall have, our cloſeſt Attention ; and we are fully ſenſible that no Means can ſerve more effectually to prevent thoſe Diſorders for the future, than the Encouragement of ſuch Inſtitutions, as tend to impreſs on the Minds of the lower Order of People, early Habits of Induſtry, and true Ideas of Religion.

As we are fully perſuaded, that Your Excellency will, upon all Occaſions, be ready to forward the growing Proſperity of this very improveable Country ; ſo we ſhall, on our Parts, be ſolicitous to demonſtrate to the World, that we cannot more effectually ſerve our own Intereſts, than by endeavouring, through the whole Courſe of our Proceedings, to contribute to the Honour, the Eaſe, and Permanency of Your Excellency's Adminiſtration.

Reſolved, Nemine Contradicente,

That the ſaid Addreſs do ſtand the Addreſs of this Houſe to His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant.

Hempen Manufactures; and that Mr. Anthony Foſter, Mr. James Forteſcue, and Mr. Pery, do prepare and bring in the ſame.

Ordered,

That the proper Officers do lay before this Houſe, Liſts of all the Penſions, now in Being, on the Civil, and on the Military Eſtabliſhments of this Kingdom; diſtinguiſhing thoſe that have been granted for Lives, and for how many Lives, and thoſe that have been granted for Years, and for what Terms, and thoſe that have been granted during Pleaſure; and when all thoſe Penſions reſpectively commenced.

Mercurij, 2 Die Novembris, 1763.

A Petition of the Mayor, Commonalty, Citizens, Principal Merchants, and Traders of the City of Londonderry, whoſe Names are thereunto ſubſcribed, was preſented to the Houſe and read; ſetting forth that the Trade and Commerce of the ſaid City for ſome Years paſt hath conſiderably increaſed, principally in the American Imports, and in the Exports of Linen Cloth and Yarn. That upwards of twenty four of the trading Veſſels belonging to ſaid City are from two hundred to three hundred and Fifty Tons Burden, and conſequently require deep Water to float them. That the preſent Quay or Place for the diſcharging and loading Goods is too ſmall and confined for the Trade of ſaid City, and the Water at the Breaſt thereof (even at the higheſt Tides) is too ſhallow, and will not float any of the large trading Veſſels belonging to ſaid City, whereby many Loſſes happen, and an additional Charge of Eight-pence per Ton for Lighterage, falls upon all Goods loaded or diſcharged in or out of ſuch large Ships, and many other Inconveniences and Diſadvantages ariſe as well to the Petitioners as Foreigners. That a new Pier or an Addition to the preſent Quay of ſaid City is highly neceſſary and much wanted, which (if executed agreeable to the Plan and Eſtimate annexed to ſaid Petition) would not only enlarge the preſent Quay, but at all times afford Water ſufficient to bring the largeſt trading Ships to the Breaſt of the Quay or Pier, where they could without Difficulty, Loſs or Damage be loaded and diſcharged, and always lie in Safety. And praying for ſuch Sum towards carrying on and compleating the ſaid Pier or additional Quay, as the Houſe ſhall think proper.

And a Committee was appointed accordingly. And they are to meet in the Speaker's Chamber, to Morrow-Morning, nine of the Clock; and they have Power to adjourn from Time to Time and Place to Place, and to ſend for Perſons and Papers, and to examine in the moſt ſolemn Manner, ſuch Perſons as they ſhall think proper upon the Subject Matter of the ſaid Inquiry; And all Members who come are to have Voices.

Martis, 8 Die Novembris, 1763.

A Motion was made, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to His Majeſty, to repreſent, in the moſt dutiful Terms, that the Debt of this Kingdom is become very great. That the Penſions, now in being, that have been placed on the Eſtabliſhments of this Kingdom, are one of the Cauſes of the Increaſe of the public Debt. That thoſe Penſions have been paid, and continue to be paid out of all the Revenues of this Kingdom without Diſtinction. That it appears to this Houſe to be worthy of His Majeſty's Royal Conſideration, whether the Grants that have been made of thoſe Penſions, are agreeable to or warranted by the Laws of this Kingdom, and whether the Revenues of the Crown that have been given for public Uſes, ought, or can by Law, be applied to Penſions: And therefore moſt humbly to beſeech His Majeſty to order it to be made known, as His Majeſty's Royal Will and Command, to the Officers of the Treaſury of this Kingdom, that no Part of the Revenues of Exciſe, Cuſtoms, Poundage, Hearth Money, Quit Rents, Ale Licenſes, Wine, or Strong Water Licenſes, or of the additional Duties, granted or to be granted in this Kingdom, for any limited Term, be paid or applied to any Penſion, or Annuity, granted, or to be granted, out of, or which may any ways charge, or affect the ſaid Revenues of Exciſe, Cuſtoms, Poundage, Hearth Money, Quit Rents, Ale Licenſes, Wine, and Strong Water Licenſes, and additional Duties, or any of the ſaid Revenues, till it ſhall firſt be determined by a Court of Juſtice, of competent Juriſdiction, that the Crown may grant Annuities, or Penſions, out of the ſaid Revenues; and that His Majeſty may be graciouſly pleaſed to give His Royal Orders to the Officers of the Treaſury, that no Penſions be paid out of the ſaid Revenues, in any other Manner, than the Judgment, or Decree of a Court of competent Juriſdiction, ſhall determine to be juſt, and agreeable to the Laws of this Kingdom; and that His Majeſty may be graciouſly pleaſed to order His Majeſty's Servants of the Law in this Kingdom, to make that Defence that the Laws of the Kingdom ſhall warrant, to every Suit that ſhall be commenced or carried on by any Penſioner or Annuitant, claiming any Part of the ſaid Revenues, till it ſhall be judicially determined, in the moſt ſolemn Manner, and by the Dernier Reſort, that the Crown may grant Penſions or Annuities, out of the ſaid Revenues. That His Majeſty's faithful Commons nevertheleſs do by no Means intend, that the Crown ſhall be deprived of the Means of rewarding Merit, or of conferring thoſe Bounties, on proper Occaſions, that the Honour and Dignity of the Crown may require: But that His Majeſty's faithful Commons, on the Contrary, will be ready to provide a Revenue, ſuch as the Condition and Circumſtances of this Kingdom ſhall admit of, to enable the Crown to reward Merit, and on proper Occaſions to confer thoſe Bounties that may be ſuitable to the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, if it ſhall be determined, that the preſent Revenues of the Crown, that have been given for Public Uſes, ought not to be applied to Penſions. Provided theſe Revenues be reſerved and applied to the Support of His Majeſty's Government in this Kingdom only.

An Order for Tueſday next being read.

Reſolved,

That this Houſe will next Wedneſday reſolve itſelf into a Committee of the whole Houſe, to take into Conſideration the State of the Penſions upon the Civil Eſtabliſhment of this Kingdom, and how the Increaſe of them may be prevented.

Ordered,

That the Agent to the Penſioners do attend this Houſe next Wedneſday.

Ordered,

That the proper Officer do lay before this Houſe, a Liſt of the Names of ſuch Penſioners as do not reſide in this Kingdom, and have Licenſes of Abſence from His Majeſty, or from the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governors, with the Dates of ſuch Licenſes.

Ordered,

That the proper Officer do lay before this Houſe, a Liſt of the Names of the Penſioners who do not reſide in this Kingdom.

Reſolved, Nemine Contradicente,

That no Money ſhall be granted by this Houſe this Seſſion, for the Encouragement or Support of any particular Trade or Manufacture whatſoever.

A Petiti-

A Petition of the Governors of the Work-Houſe of the City of Dublin, was preſented to the Houſe and read; ſetting forth, that the Number of Foundling and deſerted Children, hath for many Years laſt paſt, ſo far exceeded every Proviſion made for their Support, that a Debt hath been incurred to the amount of Three Thouſand, Seven Hundred and Seventy One Pounds, Seven Shillings and Seven Pence. That the greateſt Part of the Work-Houſe Fund being thus neceſſarily expended in the Preſervation and Maintenance of the ſaid Children, the Petitioners think it their Duty to obſerve, as they do with great Concern, that the other important Purpoſes of providing for and employing the Poor, who are the original Objects of this charitable Foundation, are in a great Meaſure unavoidably neglected. That a great Part of the Building requires to be repaired and enlarged, and that a Chapel is much wanted for the more decent Performance of Divine Service; and praying ſuch Relief as to the Houſe ſhall ſeem meet.

Ordered,

That the ſaid Petition be referred to the Conſideration of a Committee, and that they do examine the Matter thereof, and report the ſame, with their Opinion thereupon to the Houſe.

And a Committee was appointed accordingly, and they have Power to adjourn from Time to Time, and Place to Place, and to ſend for Perſons and Papers, and to examine in the moſt ſolemn Manner, ſuch Perſons as they ſhall think proper upon the ſubject Matter of the ſaid Inquiry; and all Members who come are to have Voices.

A Petition of Richard Levinge, Thomas Kingſbury, and Robert Meares, Eſqrs, and Edward Croker and Henry Darley, Gentlemen, in behalf of themſelves and the reſt of the Inhabitants of Angleſey-ſtreet, Fleet-ſtreet, Temple-bar, Aſton's-Quay, and other Streets and Quays thereunto leading, was preſented to the Houſe and read; ſetting forth, That Angleſey-ſtreet aforeſaid, is a great thorough Fair, for Coaches and Chairs paſſing between both the Houſes of Parliament, and Parts on the other Side the River, and Quays on both Sides thereof, but alſo for Carriages of all kinds loaden with Coals, Corn, Timber, Bark, and other Commodities; that ſaid Street is of a convenient Breadth, except at the South End joining College-Green, where it is ſo narrow that two Coaches (and without difficulty two Carrs) cannot paſs each other, which occaſions great Delays, Diſputes, breaking of Carriages, and often Damage to ſuch Perſons as paſs that Way. All which is owing to two ſmall Tenements which ſtraiten ſaid Street, the one fronting to College-Green, and the other immediately behind it in Angleſey-ſtreet, both held for ſhort Leaſes from Richard Levinge, Eſq; who for making a large and convenient Paſſage to and from both Houſes of Parliament, and for remedying the aforeſaid Inconveniencies is generouſly pleaſed to offer the Freedom of the Ground on which ſaid two Houſes are built, to Public Uſe, if this Houſe ſhall think fit to purchaſe the Intereſts which the Leſſees have in the ſame, which will not exceed the Sum of five hundred Pounds. And praying the Houſe to take the Premiſſes into Conſideration and to grant ſuch Relief as to the Houſe ſhall ſeem meet.

Ordered,

That the ſaid Petition be referred to the Conſideration of a Committee, and that they do examine the Matter thereof, and report the ſame, with their Opinion thereupon, to the Houſe.

And a Committee was appointed accordingly, and they have Power to adjourn from Time to Time, and Place to Place, and

and to ſend for Perſons and Papers, and to examine in the moſt ſolemn Manner, ſuch Perſons as they ſhall think proper upon the Subject Matter of the ſaid Inquiry. And all Members who come are to have Voices.

A Petition of the Miniſter, Church Wardens, and the thereunder ſigning Pariſhioners of St. Andrew's Pariſh, Dublin, in behalf of themſelves, and the reſt of the Pariſhioners of the ſaid Pariſh; was preſented to the Houſe and read; ſetting forth, that the Church of the ſaid Pariſh (reſorted to on ſolemn Occaſions by this Honourable Houſe) is in a ruinous and dangerous Condition, requiring immediate and large Repairs. That the Church Yard is much too ſmall for the Interment of the Dead. That their Watch Houſe is moſt inconveniently placed, obſtructing the Paſſage to the Parliament Houſe and intercepting the View of the College, and that there is no other Situation at preſent within the Pariſh where another Watch Houſe can properly be erected. That Rents are ſo extremely high (this Pariſh being the principal Seat of Trade) the Miniſter is under great Difficulty to provide himſelf a Houſe convenient for the Diſcharge of his Parochial Duties. That the Petitioners beg Leave to inform the Houſe, that there is contiguous to the Church Yard Ground in Leaſe from the City, which may for a ſmall Sum be purchaſed. That part of this would ſufficiently enlarge the burying Ground, and open a Communication with Chequer-Lane (a Paſſage there being very much wanted) and that on the other Part a Watch Houſe, and alſo a Houſe for the Accommodation of the Miniſter might be erected. In Conſideration of the Advantage to be received by the Miniſter of the Pariſh, for the Time being, it is propoſed that the preſent Incumbent do for himſelf and Succeſſors, give up to the Public their Right to ten Pounds a Year payable on the Eſtabliſhment, on Account of Houſes thrown down where the Parliament Houſe is now built, as alſo any future Claim or Compenſation for any Loſs not exceeding Fifty Pounds yearly, which may accrue from the Demolition of other Houſes to anſwer the public Service; and that the Petitioners are by no means able to ſupport the neceſſary Expence of carrying the ſeveral Purpoſes of this Petition into Execution, and intreating Aid.

Ordered,

Ordered,

That the ſaid Petition be referred to the Conſideration of a Committee, and that they do examine the Matter thereof, and report the ſame with their Opinion thereupon to the Houſe.

And a Committee was appointed accordingly, and they have Power to adjourn from Time to Time and Place to Place, and to ſend for Perſons and Papers, and to examine in the moſt ſolemn Manner, ſuch Perſons as they ſhall think proper upon the Subject Matter of the ſaid Inquiry, and all Members who come are to have Voices.

A Petition of the Governors of Saint Patrick's Hoſpital, Dublin, praying for ſome further national Bounty to enable them to enlarge their Buildings, and to provide a proper annual Fund for the receiving and maintaining a greater Number Patients; was preſented to the Houſe and read.

Ordered,

That the ſaid Petition be referred to the Conſideration of the laſt-mentioned Committee.

Ordered,

That it be an Inſtruction to the Committee appointed to enquire into the Accounts relative to the Newry Canal, that they examine into the preſent State of the New Navigation from Fathom-Point to Newry; into the Accounts of the Money diſburſed, and in what Manner ſaid Works have been conducted; and how much it will take to finiſh them to Newry.

And

And alſo into the Accounts relative to the Navigation from the Baſon in Drumreagh in the County of Tyrone to Farlough Lough in ſaid County; and in what Manner ſaid Works have been conducted, and how much it will take to finiſh the ſaid Navigation.

A Petition of Jane Moſſe, Widow, humbly hoping the Houſe, along with the Caſe of the Governors and Guardians of the Lying-in Hoſpital, will take into Conſideration the State of the Family of the late Doctor Moſſe; was preſented to the Houſe and read.

The Petitioner humbly ſubmits to the Conſideration of this Honourable Houſe, whether the erecting Magazines for Corn, is not the beſt Security againſt the Conſequences of Dearth, and a juſt Inducement to People to ſettle in thoſe Parts where they have the greateſt Probability of being ſupported in the beſt and cheapeſt Manner: The Petitioner therefore thinks it his Duty to inform this Honourable Houſe, that he has erected, at a large Expence, a Market Houſe and Granary in the County Town of Longford, almoſt in the Center of Ireland, and in the moſt arable and improveable Part of this Kingdom, which Granary is capable of containing Eight Thouſand Barrels of Wheat, with every Neceſſary for preſerving the ſame. That the Petitioner being deſirous of making the ſame of as much Public Utility as poſſible, humbly offers the ſaid Granary for Public Uſe, under ſuch Regulations as this Honourable Houſe ſhall pleaſe to direct, humbly propoſing, that Security be given for whatever Sum this Houſe is pleaſed to grant, that the ſame ſhall be immediately applied for the purchaſing a proportionable Quantity of Wheat, to be ſtored up as a Relief againſt Dearth or Monopoly, and to be ſold out whenever the middle Price of Wheat ſhall amount to Twenty Shillings the Barrel, in any Quantity not exceeding One Hundred Barrels, every Market Day, and to uphold the ſame for any Number of Years this Honourable Houſe ſhall appoint, and at the Expiration of the Term, to pay over ſaid Sum, or a proportionable Quantity of Corn to whoever ſhall erect the next beſt and moſt uſeful Magazine. Jovis, 24 Die Novembris, 1763.

A Motion was made, and the Queſtion being put, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to His Majeſty, to aſſure His Majeſty of our inviolable Attachment to His Royal Perſon and Family; that we have the firmeſt Reliance on His Majeſty's Wiſdom, Juſtice, and tender Regard for His Subjects of this Kingdom; but that we ſhou'd fail in our Duty to His Majeſty, and deſert the Truſt repoſed in us by thoſe we repreſent, ſhou'd we longer defer laying before His Majeſty, the real State of this Kingdom, which we have ſome Reaſon to fear, may not yet have been fully preſented to his Majeſty's View. That we preſume to do ſo from a firm Perſuaſion, that His Majeſty will not believe that we are prompted to it by the Spirit of Faction, but impelled by the Neceſſities of the Kingdom; and that we have nothing in View but His Majeſty's Honour and the Proſperity of our Country. That during the late ſucceſsful War we exerted our utmoſt Efforts for the Support of His Majeſty's Government, and to raiſe ſuch Supplies as His Majeſty thought neceſſary for His Service, though it was with the greateſt Difficulty we could even provide for Payment of the Intereſt of the Sums we were obliged to borrow for that Purpoſe. But at the ſame Time we could not without the utmoſt Concern obſerve, though we lamented it in Silence, the great and continual Increaſe of Penſions, and that a conſiderable Part of thoſe Sums which were deſtined for Public Uſes, were diverted to private Purpoſes. That this is one great Cauſe of the heavy Debt which oppreſſes this Kingdom, and which we can ſcarce ever hope to diſcharge, deprived as we are of thoſe Reſources from Trade, with which the other Parts of His Majeſty's Dominions are bleſſed. That any conſiderable Addition to this Burden muſt depopulate this Kingdom, already much exhauſted of its Inhabitants. That we preſume with all Humility to lay theſe our Circumſtances before His Majeſty, not doubting that they will excite in His Royal Breaſt thoſe Sentiments which are ſo natural to His Princely Diſpoſition.

It paſſed in the Negative.

A Motion was made and the Queſtion being put, that an humble Addreſs of Thanks be preſented to His Majeſty, for His gracious Intentions towards this Kingdom, concerning the not granting of Penſions for Lives or Years, upon this Eſtabliſhment; ſignified by one of His Majeſty's principal Secretaries of State, to His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, and by him communicated to one of His Majeſty's principal Servants in this Kingdom, and by him to this Houſe.

It paſſed in the Negative.

A Motion was made, and the Queſtion being put, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to His Majeſty, moſt humbly to beſeech his Majeſty, that he will be graciouſly pleaſed to recal the the Penſion of One Thouſand Pounds a Year granted to George Charles, Eſq; on the 15th Day of laſt July, for the Term of Thirty-one Years, in Truſt for the Sardinian Miniſter, as a Reward for negociating the late Treaty of Peace with France and Spain.

Lunæ, 28 Die Novembris, 1763.

THE Houſe (according to Order) reſolved itſelf into a Committee of the whole Houſe, to take into Conſideration Heads of a Bill for continuing and amending an Act, intitled, ' An Act for making the River Lagan navi-' gable, and opening a Paſſage by Water between Loughneagh ' and the Town of Belfaſt in the County of Antrim;' and after ſome Time ſpent therein, Mr. Speaker reſumed the Chair; and the Right Honourable Mr. Trevor reported from the Committee, that they had gone through the ſaid Heads of a Bill, and that he was directed to report when the Houſe will pleaſe to receive the ſame.

Ordered,

That the Report be received To-morrow Morning.

Mr. John Bourke preſented to the Houſe (according to Order) Heads of a Bill for granting to His Majeſty the ſeveral Duties, Rates and Impoſitions therein expreſſed, to be applied to pay an Intereſt at the Rate of Four Pounds per Cent. per Annum for Part of the Sums therein provided for, and an Intereſt at the Rate of Five Pounds per Cent. per Annum for the Reſidue of the Sums therein alſo provided for, and towards the Diſcharge of the ſaid Principal Sums; which were received, read and committed.

Reſolved,

That this Houſe will, To-morrow Morning, reſolve itſelf into a Committee of the whole Houſe, to take the ſaid Heads of a Bill into Conſideration.

A Petition of Joſeph Lindſey, Iſaac Moore, Wilſon Bomford, Charles Byrne, Peter Archbold and Patrick Weldon, in Behalf of themſelves and the reſt of the Diſtillers of the County and City of Dublin; as alſo of Richard French, Walter Sall, and David Ribton, in Behalf of themſelves and the reſt of the Druggiſts and Apothecaries of the City of Dublin, ſetting forth, that the Petitioners apprehend that if the additional Exciſe laid upon the Spirits made in this Kingdom was taken off, and laid upon all Spirits imported from Holland, with a full Explanation of a late Act of Parliament, intitling them to a Drawback upon the Exportation of our Home-manufactured Spirits, it not only would prevent the Importation of all Spirits from Holland, but would enable them to export our Spirits even to the Iſle of Man, which would in a great Meaſure prevent the running of thoſe Goods from thence. That ſince the Year 1759, the Petitioners have been conſiderable Looſers, occaſioned by the dearneſs of Molaſſes and Juniper Berries; they therefore hope, that the preſent Duty on Molaſſes, as well as upon Juniper Berries, may be taken off, which will greatly contribute to their making Geneva equal, if not ſuperior, to the Dutch. That the Duty equal to a Prohibition on Juniper Berries is prejudicial to the Druggiſts and Apothecaries, as well as to the Diſtillers. That the Druggiſts Druggiſts and Apothecaries alſo deal in an Article called Sperma Cæti, which is ſubject to Two Shillings and Four Pence per Pound Duty, and if ſuch Duty was taken off, or leſſened agreeable to its Value, it would add tenfold to the Conſumption thereof, and reduce the Value of Bees-wax, which is much uſed in the Linen Trade. And that the Market is ſupplied with nearly its whole Conſumption of theſe Articles by a clandeſtine Trade from the Iſle of Man, to the great Prejudice of His Majeſty's Revenue and the fair Importer; and praying the Houſe to take theſe Matters into Conſideration.

And alſo,

A Paper containing the Opinion of the Merchants and Sugar Bakers of the City of Dublin, relative to the Duty on Molaſſes, and other Matters mentioned in the ſaid Petition;

That Deeds were drawn, Truſtees appointed, and the greater Part of the ſaid White's Creditors in Number, and above Ninety per Cent. in Value, have ſigned the Deeds. That a few in Number and Value refuſe to execute the Deeds, by which Means the Truſt is prevented from being effectual, the executing Creditors prevented from receiving their Proportion of his Eſtate, and the ſaid White deprived of his Liberty: And praying that Heads of a Bill may be admitted to be brought in to confirm the ſaid Deeds.

His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, was, upon Motion, read.

A Motion being made, and the Queſtion propoſed, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to His Majeſty, to acknowledge with the utmoſt Gratitude, His Majeſty's moſt gracious Acceptance of our paſt Services. To aſſure His Majeſty of our firm Reſolution to purſue ſuch Meaſures as ſhall tend moſt to promote the real Intereſt and Honour of the Crown. To expreſs the general Satisfaction and Joy, with which His Majeſty's moſt gracious Declarations, communicated by His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant to both Houſes of Parliament, at the opening of the Seſſion, were received, " That by the " Concluſion of a general Peace, we were at length relieved " from thoſe Burdens which were unavoidable during a War. " That the Situation of Public Affairs would permit a very " conſiderable Diminution of the public Expence, that " nothing was to be aſked but the Continuance of the " Supplies for the Support of the ordinary Eſtabliſhments, and " that His Majeſty thanked us for our paſt Efforts, without " again having Recourſe to the experienced Liberality of " Parliament." That from theſe Aſſurances, we drew the moſt flattering Expectations of reducing the national Debt, and relieving the impoveriſhed People from the Burthen of thoſe Taxes they were ſo little able to bear ; but that theſe pleaſing Hopes were ſoon blaſted by the unexpected requiſition of Supplies, to ſupport a civil Eſtabliſhment, loaded with a long Train of Penſions, the Amount of which, excluſive of the French and Military, exceeded the Expence of all the other Branches of the Civil Eſtabliſhment in the Sum of Forty Two Thouſand Six Hundred and Twenty Seven Pounds Nineteen Shillings and Two Pence, many of which were publickly bought and ſold in the Market. That the Number of Officers upon the military Eſtabliſhment is increaſed, not only only far beyond what it ever was in Time of Peace, but even beyond what it was in the Time of the moſt dangerous War, and would under any Reign but that of His Majeſty, raiſe juſt Apprehenſions for the Conſtitution, not only of this Kingdom, but of Great-Britain. That inſtead of Six Regiments of Dragoons, and Twenty Six of Foot, the moſt ever before ſeen in this Kingdom, there are now Eight Regiments of Dragoons and thirty of Foot, beſides the Four old Regiments of Horſe. That the Expence of General Officers is raiſed from Thirty Two Thouſand Pounds in two Years, to Forty Five Thouſand Pounds; though there was not a ſufficient Number of them in this Kingdom to attend the laſt Reduction of the Forces. That the Expence of the Ordnance is ſwelled from Ten Thouſand Six Hundred Pounds, in two Years, to Forty Five Thouſand and Seventy Pounds, independent of its extraordinary Charges, which are very conſiderable; though the whole Artillery of this Kingdom is not equal to the Ordnance of one of His Majeſty's Ships of War of thirty Guns. That every other Branch of the Military and Civil Eſtabliſhments are advanced nearly in the ſame Proportion. That from Principles of Duty and Affection to His Majeſty, we granted the Supplies which were demanded from us in His Majeſty's Name, for the Support of theſe ſeveral Eſtabliſhments; however unſuitable to the Circumſtances of the Kingdom, however inſupportable to the People. But tho' the Warmth of our Zeal and Affection for His Majeſty, induced us thus liberally to grant thoſe Supplies, our Duty to Him, and thoſe we repreſent, will not permit us to conceal from His Majeſty, or the Public, the real State and Condition of this Kingdom, which we ſhall lay before His Majeſty, with all Humility, and caſt ourſelves at His Majeſty's feet, to implore His Royal Protection againſt His Miniſters. That the Expence of the preſent Military Eſtabliſhment amounts in Two Years, to the Sum of Nine Hundred and Eighty Thouſand, Three Hundred and Fifty Five Pounds, Nineteen Shillings. The Civil Eſtabliſhment to Two Hundred and Forty Two Thouſand, Nine Hundred and Fifty Six Pounds, Ten Shillings and Nine Pence; to which muſt be added, at the moſt moderate Computation, Three Hundred Thouſand Pounds, for the extraordinary and contingent Expences of Government: That theſe Sums added together amount to the Sum of One Million, Five Hundred and Twenty Three Thouſand, Three Hundred and Twelve Pounds, Nine Shillings, and Nine Pence. That to anſwer this Expence, the whole Revenue of the Kingdom, the Additional, as well as Hereditary Duties, excluſive of the Loan Duties, which are but barely ſufficient to pay the Intereſt of Six Hundred and Fifty Thouſand Pounds, the preſent National Debt, amount to the Sum of One Million, Two Hundred and Nine Thouſand, and Sixty Four Pounds, at a Medium for Fourteen Years; ſo that the Expence of the Nation for theſe Two Years, muſt exceed its whole Revenue in a Sum of Three Hundred and Fourteen Thouſand, Two Hundred and Forty Eight Pounds, Nine Shillings and Nine Pence; which Deficiency being added to the National Debt, muſt leave this Kingdom, at the next Meeting of Parliament, near one Million in Debt. That the higheſt Eſtabliſhments we ever had in Time of Peace in this Kingdom, were thoſe in the Two Years ending in March, 1755, and yet the preſent Eſtabliſhments exceed them in the Sum of Two Hundred and Eighty Three Thouſand, and Twenty Eight Pounds, Nine Shillings and Nine Pence. That during the late expenſive War, the Eſtabliſhments amounted, at a Medium, only to the Sum of One Million, One Hundred and Twenty Five Thouſand, Seven Hundred and Ninety Pounds, for Two Years; ſo that the preſent Eſtabliſhments in the Time of Peace, exceed the Eſtabliſhments in the laſt War, in the Sum of Ninety Seven Thouſand Five Hundred and Twenty Two Pounds, Nine Shillings and Nine Pence. That we have already contracted a new Debt of One Hundred Thouſand Pounds, tho' we expected to have diſcharged Part of the Old. That the Imports, Exports, and Home Conſumption of this Kingdom are already taxed, to the utmoſt they can bear. That any Addition to theſe Taxes, inſtead of increaſing, muſt leſſen the Revenue. That Nothing now remains to be taxed but our Lands, which are already loaded with Quit Rents, Crown Rents, Compoſition Rents, and Hearth Money. That if the preſent Eſtabliſhments are to be continued, the Debt of the Nation muſt conſtantly increaſe, and in the End prove the utter Ruin of the Kingdom. That ſuch is the true, but melancholy State of this Country, which Nothing but His Majeſty's moſt gracious Declarations, ſignified to us by His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, could have given us Confidence to have laid before Him, and which we do, that His Majeſty may judge how far His moſt benevolent Intentions have been purſued. That we preſume not to point out any particular Method of Redreſs; fully perſwaded as we are, that when His Majeſty ſhall have been thus fully informed of our real Circumſtances, His Wiſdom, His Juſtice, His Humanity, will not permit the utter Ruin of a Dutiful, a Loyal, an Affectionate People.

And the previous Queſtion being put, that the Queſtion be now put,

It paſſed in the Negative.

A Motion was made and the Queſtion being put, that this Houſe do reſolve itſelf into a Committee of the whole Houſe, to draw up an Addreſs to His Majeſty upon the State of the Nation.

It paſſed in the Negative.

Ordered,

That the Orders for the Day, be adjourned until To-morrow Morning.

The RIGHT HONOURABLE

Mr. SPEAKER's SPEECH

To His EXCELLENCY the

Earl of Northumberland,

Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland.

Veneris, 23 Die Decembris, 1763.

May it pleaſe Your Excellency,

HIS Majeſty's faithful Commons, who with Pleaſure embrace every Opportunity of manifeſting their Duty and Affection towards His Majeſty's Perſon and Government, have commanded me to preſent to Your Excellency the two Bills of Supply by them granted this Seſſion of Parliament, with a Chearfulneſs becoming the moſt dutiful and loyal People to the beſt of Kings.

They are perſuaded, from their Knowledge of Your Excellency's Candour and Juſtice, that His Majeſty will be truly informed, that our Attachment to His ſacred Perſon and Royal

'Houſe, and our Zeal for the Support of His Government, have no other Bounds than thoſe which the narrow Extent of our Abilities neceſſarily preſcribe.

The Commons humbly preſume, that their loyal and dutiful Behaviour will intitle them to the Continuance of His Majeſty's Favour and Protection, and they flatter themſelves that through Your Excellency's judicious and favourable Repreſentation of the State of this Country, They ſhall not only enjoy the Bleſſings, but partake of the Advantages of the Publick Tranquility, by the Increaſe of their Trade, and Encouragement of their Manufactures; by which they will be enabled effectually to ſhew their Duty to His Majeſty by ſupporting His Government with Honour.

The Commons having ſo fully and ſo recently expreſſed their Sentiments with Regard to Your Excellency's Adminiſtration, have nothing to add upon that Subject, but their moſt ſincere Wiſhes, (which I have the utmoſt Pleaſure in delivering) that Your Excellency may long continue to preſide over us, for the Advancement of His Majeſty's Service, for Your own Honour and Satisfaction, and for the Happineſs, and Proſperity of this Kingdom.

BY Vertue of an Order of the Houſe of Commons, I do appoint Abraham Bradley to print this Speech, and that no other Perſon do preſume to print the ſame.

Reſolved,

That this Houſe will next Thurſday Morning, reſolve itſelf into a Committee of the whole Houſe, to take the ſaid Heads of a Bill into Conſideration.

Mr. Anthony Foſter, preſented to the Houſe, (according to Order) Heads of a Bill, for the better Regulation, and Encouragement of the Linen and Hempen Manufactures; which were received, read, and committed.

Reſolved,

That this Houſe will next Saturday Morning reſolve itſelf into a Committee of the whole Houſe, to take the ſaid Heads of a Bill into Conſideration.

Ordered,

That Leave be given to bring in Heads of a Bill, for continuing the Encouragement given by former Acts of Parliament, to the Linen, and Hempen Manufactures; and that Mr. Anthony Foſter, and Mr. James Forteſcue, do prepare and bring in the ſame.

Mr.

Mr. James Forteſcue, reported from the Committee appointed to inquire into the preſent State and Condition of the Turnpike Roads, leading from Dublin to Dunleer, and from Dundalk, to Bannbridge; the Reſolutions which the Committee had directed him to report to the Houſe, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame were read, and are as follow;

Reſolved,

1. That it appears to this Committee, that the Debts due by the Truſtees of the Turnpike Road, leading from Dublin to Dunleer, amounted to the Sum of Thirteen Thouſand Five Hundred Pounds, principal Money on the Firſt Day of November, laſt paſt, the Intereſt of which Sum, at the Rate of Five Pounds for each Hundred Pounds for a Year, amounts yearly to the Sum of Six Hundred and Seventy Five Pounds.

Reſolved,

2. That it appears to this Committee, that the yearly Produce of the Tolls of ſaid Turnpike Road, clear of Salaries payable to the Officers of ſaid Road, and other neceſſary Diſburſements, computing them at a Medium for ſeven Years laſt paſt, amounts to the Sum of Nine Hundred and Seventy Eight Pounds One Shilling, from which deducting the Sum of Six Hundred and Seventy Five Pounds, being the Intereſt payable to the Creditors out of ſaid Tolls, there will remain only the Sum of Three Hundred and Three Pounds One Shilling, to be annually expended on the Repairs of ſaid Road.

Reſolved,

Reſolved,

3. That it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the ſaid Sum of Three Hundred and Three Pounds One Shilling, is not ſufficient to Repair the ſaid Road (being twenty nine miles long) and to keep the ſame in conſtant good Order.

Reſolved,

4. That it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the raiſing ſome of the preſent Tolls upon Carriages and the obliging all Travellers to pay once between Dublin and Gormanſtown-bridge, and once between Gormanſtown-bridge and Dunleer, in the ſame Day, will be the beſt Method of providing a ſufficient Fund for the repairing and keeping ſaid Road in conſtant good Order.

Reſolved,

5. That it appears to this Committee, a new Road may be made in a ſtrait Line from the Seven mile Stone to the Sign of the Horſe and Carr in Flemingſtown near Gormanſtown, which would be four hundred Perches ſhorter, and conſiderably leveller than that Part of the Turnpike Road which is between ſaid two Points.

Reſolved,

6. That it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the making of ſaid new Road would very much tend to the publick Advantage, as the great Road leading from Dublin to the North would not only be conſiderably ſhortened thereby, but alſo that Horſes might draw much greater Weights with the ſame Power, and in a much ſhorter time than they now can, as ſaid new Road will be much leveller than the preſent Road.

Reſolved,

Reſolved,

7. That it appears to this Committee, that the Debts due by the Truſtees of the Turnpike Road, leading from Dundalk to Bann-bridge, amounted to the Sum of Four Thouſand One Hundred and Thirty Eight Pounds Fifteen Shillings and Six-pence Halfpenny, on the Firſt Day of November laſt paſt, the Intereſt of which Sum amounts to the Sum of Two Hundred and Eleven Pounds Eleven Shillings and Nine Pence yearly.

Reſolved,

8. That it appears to this Committee, that the Yearly Produce of the Tolls of ſaid Turnpike Road, clear of Salaries to the Officers of ſaid Road, and other neceſſary Diſburſements, computing them at a Medium for Seven Years laſt paſt, amounts to the Sum of Four Hundred and Fifty Five Pounds, Seventeen Shillings, from which deducting the Sum of Two Hundred and Eleven Pounds Eleven Shillings, and Nine Pence, being the Intereſt payable to the Creditors out of ſaid Tolls, there will remain the Sum of Two Hundred, and Forty Four Pounds, Five Shillings and Three Pence, to be annually expended on the Repairs of ſaid Road.

Reſolved,

9. That it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the ſaid Sum of Two Hundred and Forty Four Pounds, Five Shillings, and Three Pence, is not ſufficient to repair ſaid Road, and to keep the ſame in conſtant good Order.

Reſolved,

10. That it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the raiſing ſome of the preſent Tolls upon Carriages, and the obliging all Travellers to pay once between Dundalk and Newry, and once between Newry and Bann-Bridge, in the ſame Day, will be the beſt Method of providing a ſufficient Fund for repairing and keeping the ſaid Road in conſtant good Order.

Reſolved,

11. That it is the Opinion of this Committee, that Carrs with narrow Wheels injure the public Roads of this Kingdom very much, and that it would be for the public Advantage, if all Drivers, or Owners of Carrs, the Wheels thereof being of a leſs Breadth than three Inches, when worn from Side to Side, were obliged to pay One Shilling Toll, at each Turnpike-gate, for every ſuch Carr.

The Six firſt Reſolutions being ſeverally read a ſecond Time, were agreed to by the Houſe.

Mercurij, 15 Die Februarij, 1764.

Ordered,

THAT the Committee of the whole Houſe, appointed to take into Conſideration Heads of a Bill, for the more effectual preventing Bribery and Corruption in the Elections of Members to ſerve in Parliament, be impowered to receive a Clauſe touching Boroughs.

Ordered,

That a Committee be appointed to inquire into the State and Condition of the Turnpike Road leading from Caſtle Durrow, in the County of Kilkenny, to the City of Caſhell, in the County of Tipperary. And a Committee was appointed accordingly; and they have Power to adjourn from Time to Time and Place to Place, and to ſend for Perſons and Papers, and to examine in the moſt ſolemn Manner ſuch Perſons as they ſhall think proper upon the Subject Matter of the ſaid Enquiry; and all Members who come are to have Voices.

A Petition of the thereunder written Merchants of the Town of Belfaſt, on behalf of themſelves and others, was preſented to the Houſe and read; praying that Heads of a Bill, now under the Conſideration of the Houſe, for the better Regulation of the Butter Trade, and for preventing Frauds and Abuſes in making Butter Caſks, may paſs into a Law, with ſome Amendments.

Ordered,

That the ſaid Petition be referred to the Committee of the whole Houſe, to whom the ſaid Heads of a Bill, are committed.

The Houſe (according to order) reſolved itſelf into a Committee of the whole Houſe, to take into Conſideration, Heads of a Bill, for veſting further Powers in the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizens of the City of Dublin, for ſecuring of Ships, trading to the Port and Harbour of Dublin; and after ſome Time ſpent therein, Mr. Speaker reſumed the Chair; and Mr. Thomas Dawſon reported from the Committee, that they had made ſome Progreſs in the Matter to them referred, and that he was directed to move the Houſe for Leave to ſit again.

Reſolved,

That this Houſe will To-morrow Morning, reſolve itſelf into a Committee of the whole Houſe, to take the ſaid Heads of a Bill into further Conſideration.

A Motion

A Motion was made, and the Queſtion propoſed, That it be an Inſtruction to the Committee appointed to inquire into the Cauſes of the late tumultuous Riſings in the Province of Ulſter, and into the Means that were uſed to ſuppreſs them (and who were inſtructed to inquire into the Cauſes of the Inſurrections in the South) That they do report the whole Matter as it appeared to them, ſpecially to the Houſe.

And the previous Queſtion being put, that that Queſtion be now put,

It paſſed in the Negative.

Mr. Bagwell reported from the Committee, the Reſolutions which They had directed him to report to the Houſe, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame were read, and are as follow:

Reſolved,

That it appears to this Committee, that there have been many Riotous, Unwarrantable, Illegal, and Treaſonable Combinations, and Inſurrections among the People in different Parts of this Kingdom, to the great Diſturbance of the Publick Peace, to the Interruption of the Trade and Manufactures, to the Terror of his Majeſty's good Subjects, to the Invaſion of private Property, and under artful and plauſible Pretences of imaginary Grievances, tending to a general Violation of the Laws, to the Subverſion of Order, and Magiſtracy, and to the deſtruction of every Legal and Conſtitutional Subordination.

Reſolved,

That it is Opinion of this Committee, that theſe Exceſſes, unleſs effectually reſtrained, muſt be attended with the moſt fatal Conſequences to the Trade, Credit, Peace, and Welfare of this Country, and muſt fruſtrate every Attempt to promote its Proſperity.

Reſo'ved

Reſolved,

That it is Opinion of this Committee, that by a regular and ſtrict Execution of the Laws now in Force, theſe Violences may be reſtrained, and Condign Puniſhment legally inflicted upon thoſe who ſhall obſtinately perſevere in ſuch inſolent and outrageous Tranſgreſſions.

Reſolved,

That it is the Opinion of this Committee, that it is the Duty of all Magiſtrates of Corporations, Juſtices of the Peace and Sheriffs in every Part of the Kingdom, to be particularly active in executing the Laws, as well thoſe for the Protection of private Property, as for the ſuppreſſing and puniſhing of Offenders; and that it ſhould be publickly known, that all ſuch Magiſtrates will be effectually ſupported in the Execution of their Office, againſt all unruly Perſons who ſhall offer, or threaten to oppoſe or reſiſt their Legal Authority.

Reſolved,

That it is Opinion of this Committee, that any Perſons taking upon them without being lawfully authoriſed, to tender Oaths to others, with Threats and Violence in Caſe of Refuſal, are guilty of a very high Offence, and are puniſhable by Law for the ſame.

Reſolved,

That it is the Opinion of this Committee, that it would tend greatly to the ſuppreſſing and the preventing of the like Diſorders for the Future, if the Senſe of Parliament were declared and publiſhed to the People; and that it would be a Seaſonable and Effectual Precaution to Unwary and Ignorant Perſons ſons, who may have been heretofore deluded by falſe and groundleſs Suggeſtions, if they were made to underſtand, that the Government and every Part of the Legiſlature have an equal Abhorrence of theſe Outrageous and Treaſonable Offences, and are alike determined upon a ſteady Exertion of their whole and united Authority in ſuppreſſing them.

A Motion was made, and the Queſtion being put, That the Conſideration of the ſaid Reſolutions be adjourned, until the Committee ſhall report the Facts upon which the ſaid Reſolutions were founded.

It paſſed in the Negative.

Then the ſaid Reſolutions, the Queſtion being ſeverally put, were agreed to by the Houſe, Nemine Contradicente.

Reſolved, Nemine Contradicente,

That an humble Addreſs be preſented to His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, to expreſs, That having ſeen, with the moſt ſenſible Concern, the many Diſorders and Outrages that have been committed in this Kingdom, in Defiance of the Law, and Violation of the Public Peace, think ourſelves called upon by the Duty we owe to the King, by the Reſpect we bear to His Excellency, and by our anxious Regard for the Welfare of our Country, humbly to ſubmit to His Excellency's Conſideration, our Apprehenſions and Sentiments upon theſe alarming Appearances.

That had thoſe Grievances, (the pretended Occaſions of the late Inſurrections), been found to have a real Exiſtence, yet the Violent, and Tumultuary Attempts for redreſſing them would not have been leſs criminal; and would even in that Caſe have been what they now undoubtedly are, Treaſon againſt the State.

But when no Traces of Oppreſſion can be ſeen we can only impute theſe Diſorders to the artful Contrivances of Deſigning Men who from ſelfiſh and intereſted Views, have ſpread this licentious Spirit, among the People, and raiſed in their Minds a reſtleſs and turbulent Impatience of every legal and conſtitutional Obligation. That we muſt confeſs it to be a melancholy Reflection in a State, the Foundation, and the Pride of which, is civil Liberty, no Invaſion whereof can with any Colour be pretended by theſe Diſturbers of the Public Repoſe, that private Property ſhould not have been ſafe under the Law, nor the peaceable Subject, ſecure in his own Dwelling, but through the Protection of a Military Force; without which Interpoſition the rapid Progreſs of theſe Diſorders cou'd not upon ſome late Occaſions have been effectually withſtood, that when we offer theſe Conſiderations to His Excellency, we have the firmeſt Perſuaſion and Confidence, that His Majeſty has always made, and ever will make, the Laws of all his Kingdoms framed equally for the ſupport of his Royal Authority, and for the Maintenance of the Liberties of his Subjects the invariable Rule of his Government; and that it is His Gracious Intention, that all Ranks and Orders of Men ſhould enjoy without Diſturbance or Moleſtation, and be protected in the Poſſeſſion of thoſe Rights and Privileges allotted to them by the Laws, and the Conſtitution; whoſoever exceeds thoſe Bounds, can lay no Claim to that Protection; that we have not the leaſt Doubt that His Excellency's Zeal for His Majeſty's Service, and his ſincere Concern for the Welfare of this Country, in which he is ſo juſtly eſteemed and honoured, will always incline His Excellency, to uſe the moſt Proper, as well as the moſt Effectual Means, for removing theſe Miſchiefs, and this Scandal from us. That as we are convinced alſo, that His Excellency will never direct the Power with which he is ſo deſervedly veſted, but to ſuch Wiſe and ſalutary Purpoſes, that we do on our Parts, in this public and ſolemn Manner, aſſure His Excellency, of our firm Determination, to exert our moſt ſtrenuous and conſtant ſtant Endeavours, in the Support of His Excellency's Authority, towards maintaining Peace, and good Order thro' the Country, the encouraging Activity in the Magiſtracy, the giving Vigour to the Laws, and for the general Preſervation of the civil and religious Conſtitution. And that we cannot but entertain ſtrong Hopes, that His Excellency's clear Diſcernment and Steadineſs, His Humanity and Temper, together with this ſolemn and Public Declaration of our full Conviction of the Neceſſity of putting a Stop to theſe Evils, and a Conduct in us conformable to this Conviction may produce this happy Effect in no long Courſe of Time. And as we rely on the moſt prudent and vigorous Exertion of His Excellency's Authority for this neceſſary End, ſo we truſt that the People thus warned of the Weakneſs as well as Wickedneſs of their former Attempts, will not be again miſled by falſe and groundleſs Suggeſtions; That they will be brought to ſee the fatal Tendency of their late blind and deſperate Conduct, and to acknowledge, that the Authority of that Government, and thoſe Laws which they have contemned and defied, can be the only Means of ſecuring them againſt Poverty and Ruin, and of preventing the utter Subverſion of thoſe Liberties, which have been made the ſpecious Pretence of theſe wild and unjuſtifiable Outrages.

Ordered,

That a Committee be appointed to draw up an Addreſs to be preſented to His Excellency, upon the ſaid Reſolution.

And a Committee was appointed accordingly.

And then the Houſe adjourned until To-morrow Morning, Ten of the Clock.

BY Vertue of an Order of the Houſe of Commons, I do appoint Abraham Bradley to print theſe Votes, and that no other Perſon do preſume to print the ſame.

VOTES

Houſe of Commons.

Lunæ, 20 Die Februarij, 1764.

THE Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Hamilton informed the Houſe, that he was commanded by His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, to acquaint them, That His Majeſty had been pleaſed to return a moſt gracious Anſwer to the Addreſs of this Houſe, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, and the ſame was read by Mr. Speaker, (all the Members being uncovered) and is as followeth:

GEORGE R.

His Majeſty receives very graciouſly the dutiful and loyal Addreſs of the Houſe of Commons, upon the Marriage of His Siſter, the Princeſs Auguſta, with the Hereditary Prince of Brunſwick-Luneburg; and obſerves with Pleaſure the Share They take in the general Satisfaction, which that happy Alliance has given to all His People. This Mark of their affectionate Attachment to His Majeſty's Perſon and Family, is very agreeable to His Majeſty; and They may be aſſured of His Majeſty's conſtant Endeavours to promote the Happineſs of His Subjects in His Kingdom of Ireland.

G. R.

Ordered,

That His Majeſty's moſt gracious Anſwer be entered in the Journals of this Houſe.

Ordered,

That a Committee be appointed to draw up an Addreſs of Thanks to His Majeſty, for His Majeſty's moſt gracious Anſwer to the Addreſs of this Houſe.

And a Committee was appointed accordingly.

Mr. Speaker reported, that both Houſes attended His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, laſt Saturday, at the Caſtle, with Their Addreſs to His Excellency; which Addreſs is as follows:

HUGH, Earl of Northumberland,

Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor

IRELAND.

The Humble ADDRESS of the LORDS SPIRITUAL and TEMPORAL, and the KNIGHTS, CITIZENS, and BURGESSES, in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe Your Excellency,

WE His Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons of Ireland, in Parliament aſſembled, having ſeen, with the moſt ſenſible Concern, the many Diſorders and Outrages that have been committed in many different Parts of this Kingdom, in Defiance of the Laws, and Violation of the Public Peace, think ourſelves called upon, by the Duty we owe to the King, by the Reſpect we bear to Your Excellency, and by our anxious Regard for the Welfare of our Country, humbly to ſubmit to Your Excellency's Conſideration, our Apprehenſions and Sentiments upon thoſe alarming Appearances.

Had

Had thoſe Grievances (the pretended Occaſions of the late Inſurrections) been found to have a real Exiſtence, yet the violent and tumultuary Attempts for redreſſing them, would not have been in the Eye of the Law leſs Criminal, and would even in that Caſe have been what they now undoubtedly are, Treaſon againſt the State.

But when no Traces of Oppreſſion can be ſeen, we can only impute theſe Diſorders to the artful Contrivances of deſigning Men, who from ſelfiſh and intereſted Views have ſpread this licentious Spirit among the People, and raiſed in their Minds, a reſtleſs and turbulent Impatience of every legal and conſtitutional Obligation.

And we muſt confeſs it to be a melancholy Reflection in a State, the Foundation, and the Pride of which, is civil Liberty, no Invaſion whereof can with any Colour be pretended, by theſe Diſturbers of the public Repoſe, that it became neceſſary to call in the Military Power in Aid of the Civil, without which Interpoſition the rapid Progreſs of theſe Diſorders, could not upon ſome late Occaſions, have been ſo effectually withſtood.

When we offer theſe Conſiderations to Your Excellency, we have the firmeſt Perſuaſion and Confidence, that His Majeſty has always made, and ever will make the Laws of all His Kingdoms framed equally for the Support of His Royal Authority, and for the Maintenance of the Liberties of His Subjects, the invariable Rule of His Government, and that it is His Gracious Intention, that all Ranks, and Orders of Men, ſhould enjoy without Diſturbance or Moleſtation, and be protected in the Poſſeſſion of thoſe Rights, and Privileges, allotted to them by the Laws, and the Conſtitution; whoſoever exceeds thoſe Bounds, can lay no Claim to that Protection.

Nor have we the leaſt Doubt, that Your Excellency's Zeal for His Majeſty's Service, and Your ſincere Concern for the Welfare

Welfare of this Country in which You are ſo juſtly eſteemed, and honoured, will always incline Your Excellency, to uſe the moſt proper as well as the moſt effectual Means for removing theſe Miſchiefs, and this Scandal from us.

And as we are convinced alſo, that Your Excellency will never direct the Power with which You are ſo deſervedly veſted, but to ſuch Wiſe and Salutary Purpoſes, we do on our Parts in this publick and ſolemn Manner, aſſure Your Excellency of our firm Determination to exert our moſt ſtrenuous and conſtant Endeavours in the Support of Your Excellency's Authority towards maintaining Peace and good Order thro' the Country. The encouraging Activity in the Magiſtracy, the giving Vigour to the Laws, and for the general Preſervation of the Civil and Religious Conſtitution.

And we cannot but entertain ſtrong Hopes, that Your Excellency's clear Diſcernment, and Steadineſs, Your Humanity and Temper, together with this ſolemn and public Declaration of our full Conviction of the Neceſſity of putting a Stop to theſe Evils, and a Conduct in us conformable to this Conviction, may produce this happy Effect in no long courſe of Time; and as we rely on the moſt prudent and vigorous Exertion of Your Excellency's Authority for this neceſſary End, ſo we truſt that the People thus warned of the Weakneſs, as well as Wickedneſs of their former Attempts, will not be again miſled, by falſe, and groundleſs Suggeſtions; that they will be brought to ſee the fatal Tendency, of their late blind, and deſperate Conduct, and to acknowledge that the Authority of that Government, and thoſe Laws which they have contemned and defied, can be the only Means of ſecuring them againſt Poverty and Ruin, and of preventing the utter Subverſion of thoſe Liberties which have been made the ſpecious Pretence of theſe wild and unjuſtifiable Outrages.

And that thereupon His Excellency was pleaſed to return the Anſwer following;

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I Cannot ſufficiently expreſs the Satisfaction I receive from this Addreſs. The Wiſdom and Dignity of Your Proceedings will not only produce the deſired Effect at Home, but will, I am perſuaded, be very highly approved by His Majeſty, and reflect true and laſting Honour upon the Parliament of Ireland.

This clear and full Declaration of Your Sentiments muſt give much Additional Weight to the Authority of the Magiſtrates, and animate them to a vigorous Performance of their Duty. I aſſure You that I will not be wanting in my conſtant Endeavours ſteadily to execute His Majeſty's known gracious Intentions for the Protection of the Civil and Religious Conſtitution, and the Rights, Liberties, and Properties of His Subjects of every Rank, Order, and Denomination.

I concur entirely with you in entertaining ſtrong Hopes, that this Reſult of your grave and wiſe Deliberations will make a due Impreſſion upon the Minds of the deluded People; and will tend, in a great Degree, towards ſecuring the Continuance of that Tranquility, which has been ſo happily preſerved in this Metropolis, and in all Parts of the Kingdom, ſince my Arrival. But every poſſible Precaution ſhall ſtill be taken, in caſe of any new Attempts, for the Support of the Magiſtrates in the Execution of their Office. Nor can future Offenders expect any Mitigation of the utmoſt Severity of the Law.

Such is my firm Determination; to which I ſhall think myſelf bound to adhere, by the Duty I owe to His Majeſty; by my ſincere and earneſt Deſire to ſee this Kingdom main-maintained in Peace, and growing in Proſperity; and by the Gratitude ſo deeply impreſſed upon my Mind to You, My Lords, and to you, Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons, for your moſt obliging, honourable, ſteady, and effectual Support of my Adminiſtration.

Reſolved,

That it appears to this Committee, that it is the Duty of the Collector of Exciſe in the Diſtrict of Dublin, to be remarkably careful in taking the Recogniſances from all Spirit Sellers, and that ſufficient Sureties be named in each of ſuch Recogniſances, and that he will deſerve ſome Compenſation for ſuch Additional Trouble.

The House being informed, that Mr. Horton, Deputy Comptroller and Accountant General, attended at the Door, he was called in, and at the Bar presented to the House, pursuant to their Order,

An

' An Account of the ſeveral Deficiencies of Hearth Money ' Collectors from the 9th Day of January, 1751, to ' the 22d Day of January, 1764, amounting to the ' Sum of 1353*l.* 10*s.* 8*d.*½

The Title whereof was read.

Ordered,

That the ſaid Account do lie on the Table for the Peruſal of the Members.

Ordered,

That the Committee of the whole Houſe, appointed to take into Conſideration, Heads of a Bill, to alter and amend the Laws, for the Repair of High Ways, be impowered to receive a Clauſe or Clauſes, to enlarge the Salaries of the Treaſurers of the Counties of Tipperary, Dublin, and Meath.

A Petition of the Maſter Shipwrights of the City of Dublin, was preſented to the Houſe and read, ſetting forth, that the Petitioners ſometime ago were induced by Meſſrs. Civil, and Company, Merchants in this City, to ſubſcribe an Advertiſement, ſetting forth, the great Utility of a Dry Dock, (which has been ſince built) and the Petitioners, for the greater Advantage and Benefit of the Merchants of this City, and Maſters and Owners of Veſſels, propoſed, that they would attend and work at ſaid Dock, in repairing Veſſels, as their Employers ſhould have Occaſion; that this Honourable Houſe were pleaſed to grant to the ſaid Meſſrs. Civil, and Company, the Sum of Two Thouſand Pounds, at different Times. That after they had received this great Encouragement and Sanction, they took a Partner into ſaid Company, Mr. Hugh Murphy, a Maſter Shipwright in this City, and now make the Employment of the ſaid Hugh Murphy, their Partner, as a Ship Carpenter, the Condition of Admiſſion for every Ship which is received into ſaid Dry Dock; and the Petitioners (having paid and are ſtill willing to pay the full Price of Dockage which the ſaid Civil, and Company, demand) are now excluded by this Monopoly. That the Petitioners humbly apprehend that the great Encouragement and Aid given to the ſaid Meſſrs. Civil, and Company, was intended for the great Utility and Good of this Kingdom in general, and not for the ſole Benefit and Advantage of one or two Individuals, in employing one Maſter Shipwright for this City, and not to deprive and exclude all Others, to the utter Ruin and Detriment of all other Maſter Shipwrights and Workmen, who have no other Employment to ſupport them and their Families; and muſt (if not redreſſed or relieved by this Honourable Houſe) be reduced to the loweſt Indigence, and reſort to ſome other Place for Employment, and by which Monopoly the Price of Ship Building and Repair will be greatly augmented to the Prejudice of all Merchants and others concerned, and praying Relief.

WE the ſubſcribing Merchants of the City of Dublin certify, that one Maſter Shipwright is inſufficient for this Metropolis, That ingroſſing the Buſineſs of a Shipwright by one Perſon or Company, would be very Injurious to the Trade of this City; and that in our Opinion, the Excluſion of any one Shipwright who will pay the reaſonable Rate of Dockage for the Convenience of the Dry Dock, lately built, will defeat the Purpoſes of rendering the ſaid Dock a publick Convenience.

To

To HIS EXCELLENCY

NORTHUMBERLAND,

LORD LIEUTENANT GENERAL and GENERAL GOVERNOR of IRELAND.

THE HUMBLE

OF THE

Knights, Citizens, and Burgeſſes, in Parliament Aſſembled.

May it pleaſe Your EXCELLENCY,

WE His Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland, in Parliament aſſembled, think ourſelves indiſpenſibly obliged to offer to Your Excellency our Warmeſt and moſt Sincere Congratulations on the near, and pleaſing Proſpect of the Concluſion of our Seſſion, diſtinguiſhed through every Period by viſible Marks of Your Excellency's Wiſdom and Steadineſs, Your Moderation and Integrity.

Our

Our Conduct, We hope, has been anſwerable to the repeated Aſſurances given by this Houſe of our inviolable Fidelity to His Majeſty, and Zeal for the Support of His Government: And although We have uſed our beſt Endeavours to be Faithful and Active in the Diſcharge of our Truſt to His Majeſty, and to our Country; yet We are ſenſible how ineffectual thoſe Endeavours muſt have been, had We not been encouraged and aſſiſted by Your Excellency's Influence, and by Your Prudence, conducted to the Ends We wiſhed to attain.

Our early and full Conviction, that the Honour and Dignity of His Majeſty's Crown, and the Happineſs of His Subjects were the Real and only Objects of Your Excellency's diſintereſted Adminiſtration gave Spirit and Vigour to Our Conſultations: And in proſecuting the neceſſary Work of correcting thoſe Diſorders which threatened Ruin to our Country, We can perceive how ſtrong an Impreſſion has been already made upon the Minds of Men by the ſtrict Impartiality in the Diſtribution of public Juſtice, by the tender Regard and unbounded Liberality to private Objects of Compaſſion, and by the regular Exerciſe of the many Virtues ſo eminent in Your Excellency's Character: So that We are pleaſed more than ſurprized to ſee a general Diſpoſition among the People to ſubmit to the Laws, and to pay a chearful and reſpectful Obedience to a Government from which They derive equal Protection, and continual Comforts and Advantages.

Your Excellency's judicious and provident Attention to the Objects of National Buſineſs, to the general Intereſts of our Commerce and Manufactures, and to the internal Regulation of the Kingdom has been manifeſted by the Return of the many Good Bills ſoon to be preſented to Your Excellency for the Royal Aſſent: And We are thoroughly Senſible of the happy Effects of Your Excellency's Interpoſition upon theſe Occaſions, and are truly thankful to His Majeſty for thoſe Proofs of His Gracious Diſpoſitions to promote Our Welfare and Proſperity.

We can have no Doubt that Your Excellency on Your Return to the Royal Preſence, will repreſent Our Dutiful Devotion to His Majeſty; and Our affectionate Attachment to His Royal Perſon, Family and Government, in the faireſt and moſt advantageous Light. This Office of Favour, We are aſſured will be faithfully and fully performed by Your Excellency, from Your Regard to Truth and Juſtice; and from Your Attention to the Good of this Kingdom.

But, as We cannot have equal Confidence that Your Excellency in Your Repreſentations, will do the ſame Juſtice to Your own ſingular Merits both with the Crown and People, We muſt beg Leave to uſe this Occaſion of giving our moſt ſincere and public Teſtimony, That His Majeſty's Rights and Royal Dignity have been maintained by Your Excellency with unſhaken Firmneſs and Fidelity: That the Boundaries of the Conſtitution have, in every Relation, been preſerved with peculiar Exactneſs; and that the Authority of His Majeſty's Government has been ſo conducted by Your Excellency, as to be eſtabliſhed, not by the Acquieſcence only, but by the Opinion and Voice of the People.

As an Adminiſtration founded upon ſuch Principles, and ſo happily carried on has produced general Satisfaction, and muſt be attended with ſubſtantial and laſting Benefit to the inſeperable Intereſts of the Crown and the Subject, We entertain the moſt ſanguine Hopes, that His Majeſty, from His experienced Wiſdom and Goodneſs, will Indulge the Wiſhes of a People thus affectionately devoted to him: And that His Majeſty will be pleaſed to continue to them a Chief Governor, by whom every valuable End of His Royal Government, and every gracious Purpoſe of His beneficent Heart is ſo effectually anſwered: and whoſe Adminiſtration has been the happy Æra of private, as well as publick Tranquillity.

Reſolved,

That the ſaid Addreſs do ſtand the Addreſs of this Houſe to His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant.

Reſolved,

That Mr. Speaker with the Houſe, do attend His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant with the ſaid Addreſs, and preſent the ſame to His Excellency as the Addreſs of this Houſe.

Ordered,

And then His Excellency was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, which is as follows:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

AS the advanced Seaſon of the Year, and the Concluſion of the Public Buſineſs, muſt make You deſirous of returning to Your reſpective Countries, I can with the moſt entire Satisfaction put an End to this Seſſion of Parliament, in which Your ſtrong Profeſſions of Duty and Affection to His Majeſty have been amply and moſt honourably fulfilled.

Your ſteady Attention to His Majeſty's Service, and to the Welfare of His People, has enabled Me to carry on the Buſineſs entruſted to Me with the utmoſt Eaſe and Satisfaction to Myſelf; and I have no Doubt that as You will receive juſt Honour and Credit, ſo the Kingdom in general will reap ſubſtantial and permanent Advantages from Your Conduct, which has anſwered My moſt ſanguine Expectations, and engaged My warmeſt Gratitude.

But

But I ſpeak with the greater Confidence, as I have His Majeſty's repeated Commands to thank You in His Name, for the happy Temper You have preſerved in Your Deliberation, for the reſpectful and affectionate Concern You have manifeſted for the Honour of the Crown; the loyal and dutiful Attachment You have ſhewn to His Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and the grateful Senſe You have expreſſed of thoſe Wiſe and Salutary Meaſures, which have terminated in an honourable, advantageous, and, We may hope, a laſting Peace.

Your Firmneſs and Reſolution in declaring Your equal Regard for our excellent Conſtitution in Church and State, and Your ſtrong and explicit Aſſertion of thoſe Principles of true Liberty and ſound Policy upon which It is founded, and Your impartial Care in ſecuring the Legal Rights and Properties of all Orders of Men in the Nation, are particularly acceptable to His Majeſty, as a clear and moſt agreeable Proof of Your hearty Zeal for the Honour and juſt Prerogative of His Crown.

But His Majeſty's experienced Regard for the Happineſs and Welfare of all His Subjects, and the peculiar Delight He takes in the Affections and Confidence of a free People, muſt give you a ſtronger Aſſurance than Words can convey, that You have entitled Yourſelves to the certain Returns of His Royal Favour: And that while this Behaviour is preſerved on Your Parts, You may depend upon all poſſible Countenance and Protection from a King, whoſe Happineſs is known to be ſo eſſentially connected with that of His People.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I am to return His Majeſty's Thanks to You particularly for the neceſſary Proviſions ſo chearfully made by You for the Support

Support of His Government.——You have ſhewn Your Care for the Publick, by the reducing the Intereſt, which tends gradually to the Reduction of the Principal of the National Debt.—— And You may be aſſured that the Confidence You have placed in Me for raiſing a Sum of Money to ſupply any Deficiency in the Funds granted by You, ſhall not be employed, unleſs the Neceſſity ſhall be apparent as You have already experienced in the like Circumſtances, under the two preceding Adminiſtrations.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I have nothing to recommend to You, but that when You return to your ſeveral Countries, You will uſe your utmoſt Endeavours and Influence to inculcate and cultivate among Your Conſtituents and Dependants, the ſame Loyalty and Affection for the King, the ſame Religious Attention to the Laws and Conſtitution of Your Country, the ſame Regard for the Rights and Properties of all Parts and Members of the Community, that You have ſhewn to be the Ruling Principles of Your own Conduct during Your Attendance in Parliament.— By reminding Them of His Majeſty's determined Reſolution to maintain the happy Conſtitution They have ſo long enjoyed, You will engage them to reſt ſecure in a well-grounded Confidence in His Royal Protection; and never to ſuffer miſtaken Apprehenſions of Grievances, or cauſeleſs Jealouſies to interrupt that Tranquility and good Order, which is the Fountain of all Political Happineſs, the Source and Support of all Induſtry, Commerce and National Improvement, and is alſo the conſtant uniform Object of the beſt of Kings.

I know not how to expreſs Myſelf in Return for the moſt obliging and honourable Teſtimonies of Your Approbation of My Conduct, contained in the Addreſſes from both Houſes of Parliament; nor for the Behaviour of the Nation in general towards Me during My Reſidence amongſt you.

The

The Succeſs of My Adminiſtration is ſtill the more pleaſing to Me, as I can aſcribe It to the Fidelity and Probity of His Majeſty's Subjects here, in which I placed a Confidence, that, I find, has not deceived Me.——This will confirm the ſtrong Repreſentation I ſhall certainly make to His Majeſty, on My Return into His Royal Preſence, of Your loyal and affectionate Zeal for His Service.

I ſhall be the more ſparing in My Profeſſions to You, as I have ſo much Reaſon to hope You are already convinced that I hold Myſelf bound by every Obligation to exert My beſt Endeavours to ſupport, and promote Your Welfare: And that no practicable Plan for the Service of Ireland will ever be declined or neglected by Me, in whatever Situation I may be placed: But none can be more agreeable to Me than that in which I have now the Honour of being employed by His Majeſty, and in which I have found ſuch a Support from a Loyal and Affectionate People in the Service of a moſt gracious King.

And then the Lord Chancellor declared, That it was His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Thurſday the Twenty Firſt Day of June next; and the Parliament was accordingly prorogued to Thurſday the Twenty Firſt Day of June next.

By Vertue of an Order of the Houſe of Commons, I do appoint Abraham Bradley to print theſe Votes, and that no other Perſon do preſume to print the ſame.
